Keeping Today's Professionals In Touch

To help keep today's professionals in touch anytime and anywhere, Collective provides Mobile Workforce Solution for Microsoft Exchange 2003™. This proven, cost-effective solution fully supports migration from —

- Microsoft Exchange 5.5
- Microsoft Exchange 2000
- Lotus Notes/Domino and Group Ware

Collective enables organizations to move to Microsoft Exchange 2003 with minimal disruptions to the business. Collective solutions include baselining all mobile work organizational requirements as well as determining the infrastructure needed to support mobile employees with the highest levels of reliability and security.

Extensive Support for Mobile Devices

With Collective and Microsoft Exchange, mobile workers can send and access email using a growing variety of portable devices:

- The BlackBerry line of wireless handhelds or cell phone cards that act as wireless modems for notebook computers, dramatically enhance on-the-road productivity.
- Wireless Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs), growing smaller, easier to use and more powerful all the time.
- Smartphones that allow mobile workers to access the corporate network from devices they can carry in their pockets.
